2022 CLASSES NOW FORMING!

LEARN TO ACT THEATER WORKSHOPS WITH BOB RUBEL

Bob Rubel is a journalist and a film television and stage director/writer with over 40 years' experience in the performing arts.

His credits include:

Owned, operated and directed a dinner theater in Chicago's Old Town area.

Conducted a theater workshop for Chicago actors.

Headed a company producing business related film video and stage productions.

Mini-series producer/director for SHOWTIME Television.

Theater workshop for 55+ seniors including the staging of a number of Broadway Musicals.

Previous journalism career with NBC Television and the Chicago Sun Times.

Bob's workshop is an open-ended class and is taught from the viewpoint of a director. He uses scenes from the world theater in a no-pressure setting to teach and polish the craft of acting. Classes can be skipped when necessary without creating a problem for catching up. New participants can start the workshop at any time. Come join the fun and explore your acting talents.
